

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

PRELUDE Deep River arr. John Thompson

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

SILENT MEDITATION

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Our minds are often full of thoughts, distractions, and worries.

Quiet our minds, O God, that we might have space to listen.

Our lips are often quick to speak our opinions and judgments.

Make our lips still, O God, that in our silence we might hear you.

Our hearts are prone to swell with anger and resentment.

Soften our hearts, O God, that we might open them up to receive you.

Let us be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger, that we might hear what you are speaking to us, and respond with faithful action.

* HYMN 644 “Give Thanks, O Christian People”

* CONFESSION AND PARDON

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

O God, we long to be transformed by your healing power.

We hunger for wholeness and thirst for renewal.

Yet, when we are given choices that will help us to grow, we often choose what keeps us stagnant instead.

We choose indulgence rather than restraint,

our comfort zones rather than our neighbor,

judgment rather than compassion,

noise and busyness rather than silent reflection,

more things rather than sacrifice,

and self-reliance rather than trust in you.

Forgive us, O God.

By your spirit, strengthen us to walk the narrow path, that our hunger and thirst might be met in you.

Silent Prayers

Assurance of Pardon

* SHARING CHRIST’S PEACE

Hymn 698 (three times) “Take, O Take Me as I Am”

Take, O take me as I am; summon out what I shall be;
Set your seal upon my heart and live in me.

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

FIRST SCRIPTURE LESSON Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-9

SECOND SCRIPTURE LESSON James 1:19-27

SERMON “Hearing and Doing with Integrity”
Integrity: Second in a series on the Book of James

RESPONDING TO GOD’S WORD

* HYMN 286 “Breathe on Me, Breath of God”

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH The Confession of 1967 (9.21, 9.24)

The reconciling work of Jesus was the supreme crisis in the life of humankind. His cross and resurrection become personal crisis and present hope for women and men when the gospel is proclaimed and believed. In this experience, the Spirit brings God’s forgiveness to all, moves people to respond in faith, repentance, and obedience, and initiates the new life in Christ.

The new life finds its direction in the life of Jesus, his deeds and words, his struggles against temptation, his compassion, his anger, and his willingness to suffer death. The teaching of apostles and prophets guides men and women in living this life, and the Christian community nurtures and equips them for their ministries.

Sermon Series on the Book of James

One of the biggest complaints about the church is that Christians don't always "walk their talk." What Christians say they believe isn't always demonstrated in their actions—judgment is more predominant than mercy and grace, hate more visible than love, and indifference and apathy more prevalent than sacrifice.

As Christians, we ourselves demonstrate that we don't really believe what we say we believe. When times are difficult, our actions reveal that we'd rather take our lives into our own hands than trust the God we profess to be generous. When our faith is tested, our doubts make us vulnerable to the allure of self-sufficiency and material security, and our neighbor becomes our competitor rather than the one we're called to love.

Yet, the Book of James says that God "gives to all generously and ungrudgingly." When we learn to see the world through the lens of God's abundance and really trust in God's generosity toward all, we are set free to risk living what we say we believe. Belief and action come into alignment, like interlocking gears smoothly working together, and there is inward and outward integrity. Beginning this Sunday, join us as we learn life lessons about integrity from the Book of James. Next up:

- August 26: "Impartial Integrity" (James 2:1-13)
- September 2: "Working Integrity" (James 2:14-26)
- September 9: "Speaking with Integrity" (James 3:1-12)
- September 16: "Friendships with Integrity" (James 1:5-8, 3:13-4:8a)
- September 23: "Relating with Integrity" (James 4:10-17)
- September 30: "Economic Integrity" (James 1:9-11, 5:1-6)
- October 7: "Praying with Integrity" (James 5:7-20)

Memory Verse for the Week

"Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to care for orphans in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world." (James 1:27)
