END OF WORSHIP ... BEGINNING OF SERVICE

The candles in worship: The four candles on the branch on the communion table are lit consecutively over the four Sundays of Advent. Three of the candles are purple, the liturgical color of Advent, and one is pink, representing the joy that Christ's coming is near. The white candle (the Christ candle) reminds us of the presence of Christ's spirit in worship (though during Advent it remains unlit, as a sign that we are waiting for the coming of Christ on Christmas). The smaller candle is in a candle holder made by a member of our partner church, Iglesia El Divino Salvador in Guatemala, and it reminds us of our covenant with them.

The Righteous Branch

The branch on the communion table represents God's promise of a coming ruler for Israel. As the prophet Jeremiah says, "I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land" (Jeremiah 33:15). The lighted candles on the branch represent our longing for the coming of Christ.

Christmas Eve Worship Service

Join us on Monday evening, December 24, at 6:00 PM for our Christmas Eve worship service. It will be a service of lessons and carols, with the sanctuary lights dimmed toward the end of the service for the singing of "Silent Night" by candlelight. Family members and friends of all ages are welcome!

“Every Longing Heart” Continues

The theme of this year’s Advent series, “Every Longing Heart,” comes from the well-known Advent hymn, “Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus.” One verse of this hymn concludes with the words, “Israel’s strength and consolation, hope of all the earth thou art; dear desire of every nation, joy of every longing heart.” What did Israel long for in exile? And what do we long for as we experience “exile” in our own lives? What are the deepest longings of the human heart? Join us this Advent season as we explore the universal human experience of longing and where the fulfillment of our longings resides. Up next in the series:

December 23: “Longing for Home” (Zephaniah 3:14-20)

“There’s No Place Like It: Meditations on the Idea of Home”

Our sense of home deeply shapes our life and faith journeys. In our 9:30 AM class during Advent, we will use several familiar biblical texts as starting places to explore different dimensions of our sense of what is “home.” How are we at home in space, in time, in our bodies, and in our relationships? When have we experienced alienation from home? Join leader Win Word-Sims as we explore biblical stories about alienation and homecoming and share about our own stories. Time will be set aside each Sunday to remember migrants and refugees around the world who have left or lost their homes, and who are still searching for a place of belonging. We meet in the downstairs classroom (Room 104).

Alternative Christmas Giving Is Here

Stop by the Outreach table in the Narthex to make a donation of $10 or more to one of the organizations below and pick up a card saying that you have made a donation in honor of your friend or loved one. This year we are sponsoring (1) the Eblen Energy Project (local), which provides families with heating and cooling assistance, (2) Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (national), which is the emergency and refugee program of the PC(USA), and (3) educational scholarships for the children of our sister community in Guatemala (global). We also have fair trade items for sale, such as coffee, tea, chocolate, or olive oil.

Advent Lectio Divina Group

Join us on Tuesday, December 18 at 6 PM for an hour of contemplative reflection on Scripture and group spiritual direction. Meaning “spiritual reading” in Latin, lectio divina is a simple, facilitated group process that invites participants to contemplate how God is speaking to them personally through selected scripture readings. All are welcome, and no experience is required. Contact Pastor Kim to sign up.

January Tuesday Night Book Study

Join us at 7:00 PM on Tuesday night, January 29, for a discussion of the book Enrique’s Journey, which tells the story of a Honduran boy’s solo journey to the United States to find his mother, eleven years after she leaves her hungry family in Honduras in order to find work. The book includes photos of Enrique and his family, as well as an interview with the author, who went on Enrique’s journey herself as part of her background research in preparation for writing the book. During this season when caravans of migrants are making their way north from Honduras and other Central American countries, this book is a timely read and an opportunity for deepened understanding and compassion. Books will soon be available for purchase in the Narthex for $10. We recommend getting a head start on your reading for January’s discussion, since the book is about 300 pages long. We hope you can join us for this time of shared learning.

Christmas Tea Celebration Is Today!

Join us in the Fellowship Hall today after worship for a “Christmas Tea” featuring delightful finger foods and desserts. Please come even if you have not brought a side dish—all are welcome!

Worship bulletin announcements for Sunday, December 23 are due to Administrator, Erin May, by noon on Wednesday, December 19.
